(g) The Revised Guidelines for perparation of'Outcome Budget for 2008-09', issued by Department of Expenditure, reiterate that as far as feasible, sub-targets for coverage of women under various developmental schemes should be indicated separately and projected physical output should also be disaggregated by sex, wherever possible and appropriate, i.e. where delivery is to individuals.

Fiscal Reform Facility

11947. SHRI KRISHAN LAL B ALMIKI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

whether Fiscal Reform Facility (FRF) initiated udner the recommendation of Eleventh Finance Commission has provided incentive around to the performing States in place of the States having failed in bringing fiscal reforms;

whether the saving of upgradation grants and local bodies grants had to be added with the saving of FRF;

if so, the details of saving; and the number of names of the States that achieved specified norms to whom the full amount of five years has been allotted under FRF?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) to (c) The Eleventh Finance Commission (EFC) recommended monitorable fiscal reforms programmes for all States (the States' Fiscal Reforms Facility). It was recommended by the EFC that 15% of the withheld part of the grants recommended to cover the deficit of the States on non plan revenue account and a matching contribution by the Central Government be credited into an Incentive Fund from which fiscal performance based grants should be made available to all 25 States during 2000-2005. The EFC recommended that the grants for specific purpose like Upgradation, Special problems and Local Bodies, which remain unutilised due to non-observance of conditionalities attached to the release of the grants, may also be added to the Incentive Fund in the fifth year, i.e., 2004-05 for distribution among the performing States. However, EFC also recommended that the final decision in respect of the undisbursed balance from the Incentive Fund may be taken as per the recommendations of the Twelfth Finance Commission (TFC). The TFC reviewed this arrangement and did not recommend continuation of the scheme of States' Fiscal Reforms Facility (FRF) over its award period 2005-10, as the Scheme of Debt Relief
